brand new year with old and new friends alike at Fatima Retreat House!
"Exploring the Gifts of the Holy Spirit" is the chosen topic for this special period in time.
Rev. Msgr. Paul Koetter and*

*Fr. Eric Johnson will invite you, each in their own way, to step back and re-explore, maybe for the first time,
the Gifts of the Holy Spirit: Wisdom, Understanding, Right Judgment, Courage, Knowledge, Reverence, Wonder and Awe in God's Presence.*

*How will they fit;
How will they look in your life in 2012?*

Expect

- A fine Holiday Dinner
- A program that will challenge you to the call for deeper holiness in 2012
- Mass
- Continental Breakfast
- New Year's Day Brunch

A Celebration of what can be in the New Year!

About the presenters:

Rev. Msgr. Paul Koetter—Pastor of Holy Spirit Parish, Indianapolis and Dean of the Indianapolis East Deanery.

In his 34 years of priesthood he has served in Indianapolis parishes as pastor, associate pastor or parish administrator at St. Therese of the Little Flower, St. Monica, and St. Anthony parishes besides his current pastorship at Holy Spirit. He served the people of Nashville, IN at St. Agnes parish for many years as parish administrator and has served the archdiocese at different times as vocations director, assistant chancellor and vicar for ministry personnel. He has also served as dean of the Bloomington and Indianapolis West Deaneries.

Rev. Eric Johnson—Vocations Director for the Archdiocese of Indianapolis and Sacramental Minister at St. Agnes Parish, Nashville, IN.

When first ordained nine years ago, Fr. Eric served as associate pastor at St. Pius X parish and chaplain at Bishop Chatard High School. Two years later he began serving the people of St. Andrew the Apostle parish (also in Indianapolis) as their sacramental minister as well. In 2005 Fr. Eric was assigned to his current position.
