Meet the Cast

Huck Armbruster is a junior and he is so exited to play Ted in Peter and the Starcatcher. My favorite memory is being a "sound chimp" and I want to thank the sound crew for all their hard work.

Emmy Bobenmoyer will be the playing the role of Fighting Prawn and is so excited to be a part of her fifth show at Chatard. She has also done all of the senior directed One Acts and is currently on her second year of Improv. Her favorite role that she's done was when she was able to be Joy in last year's production of Cinderella. Emmy is involved in many other things at Chatard including mock trial, speech team, model UN, coffee club, ambassadors, project 988, and choir. She would like to say thank you to all of her cast mates and is extremely grateful for another great show.

Isabel Bourgeois is a freshman here at Bishop Chatard High School and is excited to be part of this cast of Peter and the Starcatcher as a Neverland Sailor. This is her first show in her high school career, which she hopes to extend into the spring and beyond. She would like to thank her family and her sister, Marguerite, for always inspiring her to be the best she can be.

Renay Brodzik is a freshman and is very excited to be on ensemble as a Wasp Crew member!

Lilly Dangler is a senior and is incredibly excited to be playing the role of Captain Bill Slank. This is Lilly's seventh show at Bishop Chatard and she has deeply enjoyed it. Her friends in the cast and crew have made this show experience much more memorable and fun. She wants to thank her parents for all that they've done for her. Enjoy the show!!

Nolan Demaree is a freshman and is very excited to be playing his first role as a Mollusk native. His favorite part of being a part of this production was all the experiences, from doing lines and hanging out with his friends to meeting upperclassmen. He would like to thank his wonderful theatre teachers, the costume and set crew, and his fellow play members.

Maria Dudley is very excited to be playing the role of Teacher in Peter and the Starcatcher. She is a senior this year and is very excited for you to see this show and all the cool funny scenes in it. You might have seen her as a Boylen sister in Annie, or the Dove in Cinderella. A favorite memory of this show is the read through where the whole cast laughed so hard at some of the funny lines. She would like to thank Mr. Z, Miss Holly, Mrs. Lam and the entire cast and crew for making this show a success as well as thanking her friends and family for supporting her doing theatre.

Annika Eble is a senior and is devilishly excited to be the most fearsome Black Stache. She has had so much fun channeling the most eccentric personality possible to entertain the audience. Annika thanks her family for inspiring her to be the most she can be. She hopes you enjoy the show!

John David Engle is a sophomore and is thrilled to make his Bishop Chatard Theatre debut as Lord Leonard Aster in Peter and the Starcatcher! His favorite memory has been getting to know the cast and making memories during rehearsals. His previous stage adventures include Footloose, Father Christmas in The Chronicles of Narnia, and Buddy in Elf the Musical. John David would like to thank his friends for convincing him to give Chatard Theatre a try and his family for always supporting him—and for continuing to watch him pretend to be other people. He hopes you enjoy the show!

Molly Faris is a senior and is so excited to be playing Molly! (This show has been very convenient for her.) She has also enjoyed running the Thespian Society alongside Kate and Marcus, especially the Thespian Retreat! As always, she would like to thank her acting coach, Moosey, her family, and Mr. Z and Ms. Holly for believing in her and helping her grow. Enjoy the show!

Clara Faris is a freshman and is so excited to be a sailor on the Neverland crew! Her favorite memory is getting to do this show with her sister. She would like to thank her sister, Molly, for inspiring her and her parents for supporting her.

Bailey Gorr is a sophomore this year and is so excited to be playing a member of The Wasp crew (and boxing announcer) in Peter and the Starcatcher. This is her second year acting in the fall play at BCHS. One of her favorite stories growing up was Peter Pan, so when she learned about the play this year she had to join. Some of the activities she does outside of play are clubs, improv, flag football, and lacrosse.

Polly Hamm is a freshman this year. She is thrilled to be playing the role of a Neverland crew member! Her favorite memory from this show was at the read-through when she first saw how the cast works well together as one community. Polly would like to thank everyone in the cast, Ms. Holly, and Mr. Z for making this show possible.

Jace Henderson is a sophomore and is so excited to be playing as one the members of the Neverland crew.

Oliver Lam is a senior excited to return once again to the stage as Prentiss! Oliver's favorite memory from the show has been just goofing off with his friends and fellow actors. Oliver would like to thank many people, but to prevent this bio from being too long, he would specifically like to thank his family, especially his brother Ben for inspiring him and his little brother Nico for always supporting him in every situation.

Ava Littrell is a sophomore this year, and is a part of the Neverland Crew. This is Ava's 8th show, third at Chatard, with some highlights being Young Elsa in Frozen, Mrs. Phelps in Matilda, and a Baby Spider in Charolette's Web. Ava has always loved theatre, and is so proud of how far she and her cast-mates have come. She would like to thank her directors, her friends, her family, her parents, the upper class men who have helped her in more ways than one, and Jesus Christ for without whom none of this would even be possible. She hopes that you enjoy the show!

Sean O'Gara is a senior, and this is his fourth school play. In Peter and The Starcatcher, he is excited to finally play a villain in the role of Grempkin. His favorite Chatard theatre memory is getting dragged across the stage during Senior One Acts in his freshman year. He would like to thank his parents and grandmothers for supporting him.

Andie Papesh is a senior at BC and is so excited to be playing Mrs. Bumbrake in Peter and the Starcatcher! She would like to thank her best friend Oella, the carpool girls, scene partner Alf, Nana, and DFTB for all their love and support. Her favorite theater memories this year have been dancing during rehearsals and growing closer with her cast mates. "We hope you enjoy the show!"

Marcus Pivec is a senior and is so exited to be playing the role of Peter. This is his 5th major show as an actor at Chatard, and he is ready to make his return to the stage this year. He would like to thank his friends for convincing him to act again, and his parents for being incredibly supportive of all of his passions.

Lizzie Randolph is a sophomore who is very excited to be part of her third production with Chatard. She is in both the cast and build crew and had so much fun building the set while also learning how to be the best mollusk ever.

Davanti Reyes is a freshman and is so excited to be playing as a mollusk. This will be her first theater production she's ever been in. Her favorite memory of the show is being with friends.

Madi Robinson is a senior this year! She is so ecstatic to be playing Smee in this year's production of Peter and the Starcatcher. Her favorite memory of theatre was the car rides to cast parties and Graeter's with her friends. She would like to thank her parents for supporting her always and her friends for hyping her up.

Morgan Rusbasan is ecstatic to be playing the role of Alf in Peter and the Starcatcher! She is a junior who has been seen in a plethora of roles since her freshman year at Chatard, her favorites being Pinky in Cinderella and Mrs. Arable in Charlotte's Web, and every silly role in the Senior directed One Acts! Along with that, this summer, Morgan was seen as Tweedledum in Westfield Playhouse's production of Alice in Wonderland. When not on stage, Morgan enjoys cracking jokes on the Improv Team, participating in Mock Trial and Model UN, singing in Acapella and Vox Choir, and anything else she could get involved in. Mikhailo Wentworth, known to peers as 'Miko,' is taking part in his first non-musical Chatard play! A sophomore as the incompetent sailor, Mack. Miko made sure that, when he was on stage, he would still give light to a character in the background. Acting upon trivial ideas during scenes where it didn't matter, only added more to this dense character he plays, and was his favorite part of this entire escapade. Miko's happy to be a part of the show, and hopes you're happy he's a part of it too!
