FRANCIS SILAS MAREAN

CHATARD

Silas Marean Chatard was born in Baltimore, Maryland on December 13, 1834, the same year that Rome created the Diocese of Vincennes. Silas was one of eight children of Ferdinand Chatard and Eilza Marean. His great-grandfather had originally emigrated from France to practice medicine in what is now Haiti. He settled in the United States after the French were forced to leave Haiti in the Haitian independence movement. Silas, as well as his father, grandfather and great-grandfather were all physicians, as were one of his brothers and a number of his nephews and grand-nephews.

Silas completed his elementary school education in a school run by the Daughters of Charity, and he graduated from St Mary's College in Emmitsburg, Maryland, in 1853. He completed his medical studies and began practicing medicine in a Baltimore hospital which cared for the poor. Against his father's wishes, Silas entered the priesthood in 1856 and was sent to the North American College Seminary in Rome for his studies. He was ordained a priest on June 14, 1862. In 1863, Francis Chatard received a doctorate in Theology. In 1868, Chatard became rector of the college, a position he filled for ten years. Because of his education and conservative views, Chatard quickly became an influential member of the Vatican hierarchy and was a close advisor to Pope Pius IX on American Church affairs.

In 1878, Chatard became the fifth bishop of the Diocese of Vincennes. He realized that Indianapolis would be the future administrative center of the state and requested permission from the pope to establish his residence at the corner of 14th and Meridian streets. In 1898, Rome officially changed the diocese from Vincennes to Indianapolis. In the last years of life, Bishop Chatard turned over his position to Auxiliary Bishop Chartrand but continued to offer daily Mass until his death on September 7, 1918.

Bishop Chatard High School, a dynamic educational environment for young men and women with different life experiences, is directed to the success of each student, focused on growth of the whole person, and modeled on the teachings of Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. Bishop Chatard High School prepares students for a life-long commitment to faith, learning, leadership and service.

ADMIN

Bishop Chatard was honored as a 2014 School of Excellence by the Catholic Education Honor Roll, part of the Cardinal Newman Society. Only 71 Catholic high schools in the nation received the honor this year. Schools are awarded the designation based on the integration of Catholic identity throughout all aspects of their programs and excellence in academics.

4 STAR SCHOOL

Bishop Chatard High School was named one of 311 4-star schools in Indiana for the 2012/2013 school year. In order to achieve this designation, a school must be in the top 25th percentile of schools in three ISTEP-based categories.

NCA Accredited

Bishop Chatard is accredited by the State of Indiana and the North Central Association of Schools and committed to the education of the whole person. While emphasis is placed on academics, students deepen their faith through retreats, liturgical celebrations, and service projects. They strive to develop their talents and interests through a broad spectrum of extracurricular activities.

HONORS

A LETTER

FROM THE PRESIDENT:

BILL SAHM

We are very excited about being recognized as a Cardinal Newman Society Honor Roll School of Excellence. I see it as a big deal for many reasons.

On the surface -- less than 5% of Catholic high schools across the nation received this acknowledgement. Second, the distinguished schools must meet an extremely rigorous set of academic standards. Our graduation rates, college and career readiness rate (percentage of seniors who graduate having successfully completed at least one college level course), percentage of students who pass the state's End of Course Assessments, the extraordinary number of teachers with master degrees, as well as our challenging curriculum, all serve as testimony of our worthiness. When viewed in the context of our mission as the Archdiocesan high school of the North Deanery, to serve a wide range of learners, this is a remarkable accomplishment.

An even more challenging standard of the Cardinal Newman award is the effective integration of an authentic Catholic mission into all aspects of school life. This means that we are constantly striving to place Christ at the heart of our mission -- in the classroom, in all of our extracurricular activities (in which over 85% of our students participate each year), our service to others and the work we do to provide our students, and the adults who minister to them, a dynamic faith formation experience.

The path to this point in our journey toward becoming a nationally recognized Catholic High school has not been easy, nor can it be attributed to the efforts of just a few. Rather, many have contributed along the way. Among these: A dedicated and talented faculty and staff who sacrifice much for the students they love; the North Deanery community of pastors, school administrators, faculty and staff who prepare their future Trojans so well and support us with their resources and prayers; our committed benefactors who contribute their time, expertise and financial resources year after year; the members of our Board of Regents, whose wisdom and dedication to our mission provide the foresight and leadership required for all the years their children are with us and beyond.

Congratulations Bishop Chatard community! We are truly blessed.

Bill Sahm, President
