

How to submit a discussion post to Canvas

Find the discussion on Canvas

iPad 11:10 AM 51%

Back English 9 F-Curtin 17-18

- Home
- Modules
- Assignments
- LTI ReadTheory
- LTI Powerschool
- Syllabus

Back ↗ Tug of War--Is George Mean? ↶

Tug of War--Is George Mean? Yesterday, 9:03 AM
Graded discussion. 5 points possible.

Directions: Make a claim about whether or not George is mean. Then, explain your claim using supporting details from the text with page numbers. Your response should be no more than 4 sentences.

*Here is a frame if you need it:

George is/is not mean because _____. This is illustrated/shown/revealed when he says/does/implies " _____ " (#). In this portion of the text, he shows that _____ (explain what he shows about his character's meanness/kindness).

⌚

Click the reply arrow

The screenshot shows an iPad interface with a dark top bar. On the left, there is a navigation menu with icons and labels: Home, Modules, Assignments, LTI ReadTheory, LTI Powerschool, and Syllabus. The main content area is titled "Tug of War--Is George Mean?" and includes a "Back" arrow, a time display of "11:10 AM", and a battery status of "51%". The discussion content includes the title "Tug of War--Is George Mean?", a sub-header "Graded discussion. 5 points possible.", and "Directions" for a writing task. A yellow box highlights a reply arrow icon in the top right corner of the discussion area.

iPad 11:10 AM 51%

Back English 9 F-Curtin 17-18

Home

Modules

Assignments

LTI ReadTheory

LTI Powerschool

Syllabus

Back ↩

Tug of War--Is George Mean?

Tug of War--Is George Mean? Yes Today 9:02 AM

Graded discussion. 5 points possible.

Directions: Make a claim about whether or not George is mean. Then, explain your claim using supporting details from the text with page numbers. Your response should be no more than 4 sentences.

*Here is a frame if you need it:

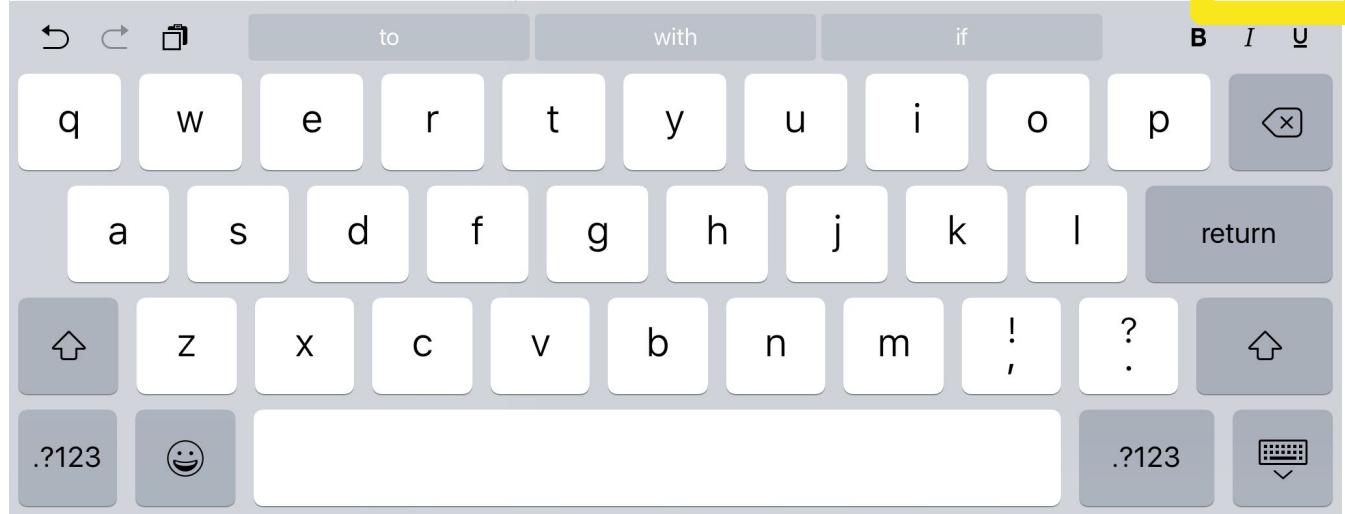

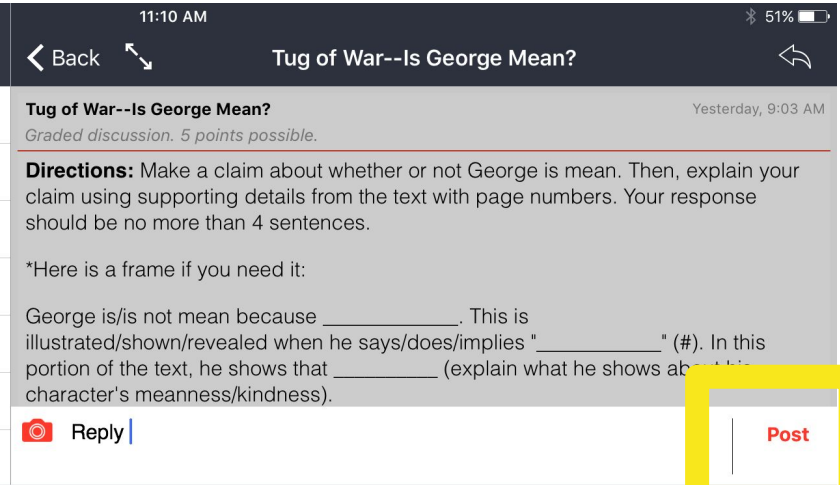

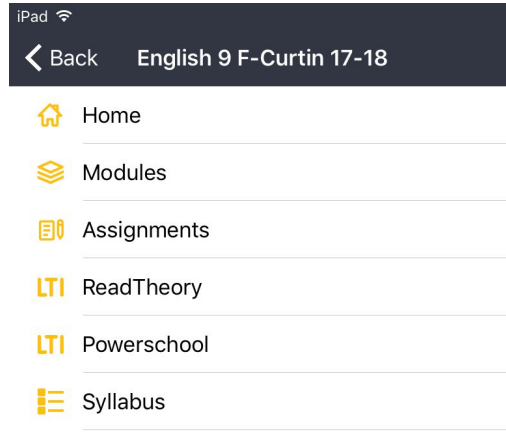

George is/is not mean because _____. This is illustrated/shown/revealed when he says/does/implies " _____ " (#). In this portion of the text, he shows that _____ (explain what he shows about his character's meanness/kindness).

⌂

Type your response

The screenshot shows an iPad interface with a dark top bar. On the left, a navigation menu lists: Home, Modules, Assignments, ReadTheory, Powerschool, and Syllabus. The main content area is titled "Tug of War--Is George Mean?" and includes a "Back" button, a timestamp of "11:10 AM", and a battery level of "51%". Below the title, it says "Tug of War--Is George Mean?" and "Graded discussion. 5 points possible." The "Directions" section reads: "Make a claim about whether or not George is mean. Then, explain your claim using supporting details from the text with page numbers. Your response should be no more than 4 sentences." Below this, a text frame is provided: "*Here is a frame if you need it: George is/is not mean because _____. This is illustrated/shown/revealed when he says/does/implies '_____' (#). In this portion of the text, he shows that _____ (explain what he shows about his _____)". At the bottom of the screen, a text input field is highlighted in yellow, containing a camera icon and a "Post" button. A standard QWERTY keyboard is visible at the bottom of the screen.

When you are finished, click "Post"

Wait for your response to load

The screenshot shows an iPad interface with a dark top bar. The left side features a navigation menu with the following items: Home (house icon), Modules (stack of books icon), Assignments (document icon), ReadTheory (LTI icon), Powerschool (LTI icon), and Syllabus (list icon). The right side displays a discussion titled "Tug of War--Is George Mean?" with a timestamp of "Yesterday, 9:03 AM" and a note "Graded discussion. 5 points possible." The directions state: "Directions: Make a claim about whether or not George is mean. Then, explain your claim using supporting details from the text with page numbers. Your response should be no more than 4 sentences." A frame is provided: "*Here is a frame if you need it: George is/is not mean because _____. This is illustrated/shown/revealed when he says/does/implies '_____' (#). In this portion of the text, he shows that _____ (explain what he shows about his character's meanness/kindness)." Below the frame is a large grey area with a loading spinner. At the bottom, there is a text input area with a camera icon on the left and a "Post" button on the right. A keyboard is visible at the very bottom with the words "to", "with", and "if" highlighted.