

BISHOP CHATARD THEATRE PRESENTS

Footloose

THE MUSICAL

April 15 - 17, 2021 at 7 p.m.

Director's Note: Holly Stults

For me, (and people of a certain age), the movie FOOTLOOSE provided the soundtrack to life in the 1980s. An era of excess that was reflected in music, movies and in fashion: big hair; big shoulder pads; oversized blazers; bright colors; double polos; and ripped jeans!

The 1984 movie celebrated the spirit of young people fighting for change backed by 80s pop anthems (and may have been the start of the "Six Degrees of Kevin Bacon"). The show opened on Broadway in October of 1998 and ran for 709 performances. Dean Pitchford-author and lyricist- says this in his Author's Notes:

The major characters in FOOTLOOSE have one trait in common: they are survivors. Their circumstances-no matter how tragic-have not defeated them; and, as a consequence, we, the audience, find them likable, sympathetic...human.

This past year has been quite a challenge -to put it mildly. However, just like the characters in the show, this cast has not allowed the COVID 19 pandemic to defeat them. One year ago, our production of GUYS and DOLLS was brought to a screeching halt as were so many other shows, concerts, athletic events, and family celebrations. When Ren goes before the Town Council at the end of the show, he cites several Bible verses, but it is Ecclesiastes 3 that assures us:

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance...

One year after the dice did not roll in our favor, this spring brings a sense of hope and renewal and with it, a time to perform! We are so grateful for this opportunity and thank all of you for your support.

Should you feel the need to jump up and dance at the end of show, please feel free to kick off your Sunday shoes and cut FOOTLOOSE!
